Read the passage below and answer questions 41 to 50.

After a severe beating, they were thrown into jail and the jailer was ordered to lock them up tight. Upon receiving the order, the jailer threw them into inner cell and fastened their feet between heavy blocks of wood.

About midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God and the other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was a violent earthquake which shook the prison to its foundation. At once, all the doors opened and chains fell of the prisoners. The jailer woke up and when he saw the prison doors open, he thought the prisoners had escaped, so he pulled out his sword and was about to kill himself. But Paul shouted at the top of his voice. "Don't harm yourself, we are all here!"

The jailer called for a light, rushed in and fell trembling at the feet of Paul and Silas. Then he led them out and asked, "Sir, what must I do to be saved?"
